

Dave Boyd Rambles for West, 33-19

Warriors Win 3rd Straight

The hard running Dave Boyd, Dean Owens and Dan Whelan of West High galloped to five touchdowns and a 33-19 non-league football victory over San Marino Friday night. There could have been more scoring, but the officials said "no" to three touchdowns in the fourth by discovering penalty infractions.

Boyd tallied three TDs and had two others nullified. He tore into the San Marino defense for 265 yards rushing. As a team, West had 473 yards rushing and 51 passing for a 524 total. Eight 15-yard penalties were called against West.

While the Warriors struck on the ground, San Marino quarterback Steve Sommers serenaded the Titans fans with one touchdown pass and two touchdown runs.

Each time the Titans scored they trailed by three touchdowns, so West was never in much trouble.

Coach Fred Peterson's three-game winners moved the football at will, as the statistics indicate.

Boyd plowed through the opposition for a 85-yard score with less than four minutes gone in the game. A fumble recovery by Bob Oliver set up the TD.

West scored four minutes later when Boyd tallied from the one-yard line and Paul Johnson converted.

The score went to 20-0 in the second period when Owens went nine yards over left tackle and Johnson kicked again.

San Marino got its passing game going to finally get on the scoreboard with a minute left in the half. A pass interference set the stage for Sommers' first 4-yard TD run. He threw to Andy Harrah for the extra point.

West tallied again in the final 43 seconds of the half as Boyd ripped 40 and 30 yards on a spectacular display of power running.

West stayed on the ground in the second half to pound away at the visitors. The only score came on an 85-yard drive. Whelan went the final two yards for his first TD of the year.

With the score 33-7, San Marino came back on a 28-yard pass from Sommers to Harrah.

In the fourth quarter West got within the Titans 3-yard line, but a Boyd touchdown was voided by a penalty and Johnson was wide on a field goal attempt.

San Marino drove 80 yards for its third touchdown with Sommers sneaking over from the one.

West quarterback Coy Hall saw action for the first time this year in the fourth quarter. He handed off to Boyd at the 8-yard line, but a holding infraction was detected and Boyd was deprived of a TD. Even when Rich Brooks sprinted 23 yards on a reverse, a holding penalty pre-empted the play and time ran out.

San Marino Coach Bob Cunz was stunned with Boyd's performance. "Our scouting report said Boyd was big and slow," admitted Cunz. "I oughta fire anybody who would come back with that kind of report!"

West travels to Rolling Hills for a day game next Friday to wind up the non-league slate. Rolling Hills crushed Palos Verdes, 25-0, Friday afternoon.

Lumar Lundy Of the Rams

Lumar Lundy, who has been with the Rams longer than any other player in the club's history, looked back this week over his 11 seasons and decided that playing as a member of the famed "Fearsome Foursome" has given him his greatest satisfaction as a pro performer.

"But my biggest thrill? Last week's win over the Dallas Cowboys was it," declared the towering (6-7) defensive end and co-captain as he took a breather during practice for today's battle at the Coliseum against the San Francisco 49ers.

"It has given us such a big lift. We know we beat a real fine team. We have proved we have the ability to go all the way.

"The way we beat them was so satisfying . . . stopping their wide-open offense and then showing them we have a better one . . . keeping quarterback Don Meredith off balance . . . not letting Bob Hayes get loose . . . holding them to 51 yards on the ground, when they'd been averaging 171 yards . . . I tell you I'll remember it a long time!"

Lundy said defensively the Ram game was perfect. "The Cowboys did exactly what we figured they would in every situation. They do so much shifting we didn't bother with defensive signals in the huddle. (Maxie) Baughan waited until they were set, then called an audible and just about every time it was right.

"That's where a veteran unit such as ours has a big edge. Adjusting to audible takes instant reactions and only experience can give you those moves."

Lundy expects a more orthodox game against the 49ers. "But it'll be another tough one," he warned. "The No. 1 objective of the defensive line is always to get to the passer, and the 49ers give their quarterback real good protection. Last year John Brodie was thrown next to the least number of times of any passer in our division."

Lundy said throwing the quarterback for a loss is often more significant than getting an interception. "If you flatten him often enough he'll start throwing wildly and the interceptions will come. Not many quarterbacks can keep their poise under a heavy battering. And there's something else that doesn't show in the statistics. If we keep crowding the passer, even if he gets his throws away he's off balance and the throws likely will be off target."

Recalling further his eleven years with the Rams, Lundy said another big thrill came in 1966 when he got the news George Allen had been hired as the Rams' head coach.

"Did you know that Allen was my coach the year I joined the Rams in 1957? Sid Gillman had hired him that season as end coach. If it hadn't been for Allen I don't think I would have made the squad. Gillman had put me at tight end, and while I was a good blocker, my big problem was maneuvering — getting open. Allen worked every day with me long after practice was over, showing me the right moves. With his help I got to be a pretty good tight end. In 1958, my best year on offense, I caught 25 passes.

"But I like defense better. And over the years I think defense has changed more than offense. The offensive plays are not much different than they were 11 years ago. The quarterbacks are more agile, do more scrambling than they did then. The ends are faster. However, basically offense hasn't changed much.

"But the changes have been tremendous on defense. I can remember when I first started defense we had only certain defensive patterns and if the other team ran an offensive play that didn't fit our pattern, we were dead.

"Now we have 40 defensive formations and, with the variations off them, we can utilize approximately 170 different defenses. No matter what the play is, we have a defense for it. If our call is right, especially for a run, we're going to stop it. That's why you see more field goals now than in the past. It's also why most touchdowns are scored through the air nowadays—there, at least, it's usually one on one, and if the quarterback is on target and the receiver runs his pattern right, the odds are in their favor."

In pro football 11 years are a long time. On the Ram squad when Lundy joined it was such famed names as Elroy Hirsch, Norm Van Brocklin, Bob Boyd, Les Richter and Tank Younger — all long since departed. Coming in with him as rookies were future stars like Jon Arnett, Billy Ray Smith, Del Shofner and Jack Pardee. Arnete has retired, Smith and Softner are with other clubs, and only Pardee is with the Rams again, coming out of retirement.

After 11 seasons most players begin thinking of another line of work, but Lundy has no such ideas. "Beating the Cowboys last Sunday added years to my career," he said enthusiastically. "I may NEVER quit now."

North Bee Team Routs Foe, 59-0

Coach Jim O'Brien's North Monarchs won the C-game, 27-0, over Morningside Friday in a week ago the North Bees non-league football game. The beat Santa Ana Valley, 51-0.

SOUTH TRIUMPHS

3 Touchdowns Scored by Wang

Slippery Jeff Wang culminated three touchdown drives by slipping into the end zone as South High registered a 20-0 Bay League win over Mira Costa Friday night on the loser's field.

South scored in each of the first three quarters and not only did Wang cross the goal line each time, but twice he ran for extra points.

Wang's performance was complimented by a hard played offensive game by the South line. The team was praised by coach Herb Richey for its blocking and outstanding defensive play. The Spartans picked off three passes and recovered three Mira Costa fumbles.

The win started South off with a 1-0 record in the Bay League and followed a pair of non-league losses to Marina, 18-6, and Bishop Montgomery, 20-7.

Wang has scored four of South's five touchdowns. The team goes against Redondo net Friday at Seahawk Bowl. Redondo was upset by Hawthorne Friday, 13-7.

South 7 7 6 0-20
South TDs — Wang (3); PATs — Wang (2).

Jeff Wang, the hustling senior halfback from South High, is the "football player of the week."

Jeff has played three outstanding games against Marina, Bishop Montgomery and Mira Costa. In Friday night's game against Costa, he scored 20 points in a 20-0 victory.

What makes Wang's performance amazing is that the defense is in a position to gang up on him. He will always run with the ball 20 to 30 times a game and rarely is he held short of the line of scrimmage on a straight-ahead dive play.

Morningside on the Go

There is so much football talent at Morningside High School that nobody is going to catch up with the school for years to come.

Morningside turned North High into a "cream puff" Friday night by a score of 34-0. The job was done by sophomores, juniors and seniors.

But not to make the Saxons sound too feeble, Morningside could beat anybody in the Bay League by at least the same score.

The Monarchs have speed, passing and maneuverability in the line. The team has three outstanding quarterbacks.

Bob Trythal, a junior, and Mike Harris, a sophomore, were at the helm against North and pretty well baffled the Saxons.

Lawndale

Tumbles Knights

Bishop Montgomery suffered a 13-7 loss to the unbeaten Lawndale varsity football team Friday night in a home game. It was the first time Lawndale beat the Knights in three years. To win the game the Lancers held off two fourth quarter threats by Montgomery.

Both teams scored in the second quarter for a 7-7 tie count, but Lawndale went ahead for keeps in the third period.

The winning TD came on an 82-yard drive in 13 plays. Following a 24 yard pass from Gary Granville to Tom Mattern, Granville went over from the 1 yard line.

In the fourth quarter Montgomery was stymied twice at the 36 and 26 yard line of Lawndale.

Lawndale scored first. Granville set it up with a 54 yard run and threw to Dave Harnes 10 yards for the TD. The quarterback ran for the extra point.

Montgomery tied the game on a 2-yard pass from QB Greg Collins to Mike Ramirez. Dennis Haren tied the game momentarily with a place kick.

Lakers End Practice Slate

Concluding their 12-game pre-season schedule, the Los Angeles Lakers meet San Francisco's Western Division champion Warriors Tuesday in Fresno.

Bill Sharman's sharpshooters won two of three contests from LA in Hawaii, both by two-point margins, but since then the Lakers have run up scores against San Diego, Baltimore, and Cincinnati.

FOOTBALL ROUNDUP

Samo, Hawthorne Turn in Upsets

Two mild upsets occurred in the first games of the Bay League football season Friday night. Hawthorne scored the only second half touchdown to break a 7-7 tie and beat Redondo, 13-7. The defending champion Santa Monica Vikings tallied twice in the fourth quarter for a 24-12 triumph over highly regarded Inglewood.

In the game to determine supremacy in the Marine League and to establish the rightful No. 1 team in the Los Angeles city schools district, Gardena belted Carson, 69-27, with 11,000 in attendance, at El Camino Stadium.

Gardena broke a 14-14 first quarter score with 35 points in the second period.

The series between Rolling Hills and Palos Verdes was evened at 2-all as John Papadakis scored twice in a 25-0 win for Rolling Hills.

Beverly Hills posted its third win with a 27-13 conquest of Lennox. Aviation got a 14-14 tie with Aviation while Leuzinger handed El Segundo its third loss, 34-7, in Sky League-Pioneer League combat.

Redondo upset Hawthorne 7-0.
